Greetings Team Whidbey!
The beautiful Pacific Northwest weather is taking a turn for crisper mornings and shorter days as we head into fall. And, what a better time to participate in the incredible events that are taking place at our award-winning facilities than this season? We extend a warm invitation to you and your family to join in on the fun!

Kick off this fall with Costumes and Carving at Cliffside RV Park and a Harvest Festival, where you and your family can enjoy a trunk or treat, crafts and pumpkin picking at the scenic Rocky Point this October, hosted by MWR’s Community Recreation.

During November, we will celebrate and honor Military Families with specials and activities, bowling tournaments and even a clue- and challenge-driven Race the Base! At the start of December, Community Recreation will host a Holiday parade that starts at Maylor Point and continues on through Victory Terrace and Crescent Harbor Housing, bringing all the festivities right to your front door!

Don’t forget to collect the final three medals of the 2021 Virtual Run Series, sponsored by GEICO | Military (no Navy or Federal endorsement implied). There is the #DayoftheDead5K, #TurkeyTrot5K, #EggnogJog5K ... we can’t wait to see your pictures of the finish line!

In short, know that the NASWI FFR and N9 team are here to serve you and your family. Do not hesitate to reach out to any of our facilities and its team members should you have any questions. We want your stay here at NASWI to be the best it can be. We are eager to hear of your ideas for future events and activities!

NAS Whidbey Island

The Hall Family, pictured here at the Convergence Zone, were among the first to claim their free tickets to the NAS Whidbey Island USO Concert Tour. The family-friendly show featured Miss America Camille Schrier, comedian Taylor Williamson, DJ J. Dayz and country music duo LOCASH.

Military kids got to hear from Seahawks legend Edwin Bailey this summer during the Seattle Seahawks Gatorade Junior Training Camp.
Congrats to VP-69 representatives CDR Aldridge, AOC Van Allen and AWO1 Sparks who won first place in an MWR Sprint Triathlon, completing a 2000 meter row, a 12-mile bike ride and a 5K run in just 56 minutes and 9 seconds!

Way to go Navy Veteran and VR61 Calvin D. Simerson! He earned the first of five Virtual Run Series medals by posting this pic to our Facebook page. See page 11 for details on how you can join him and others at the next 5K!

EXPRESSIONS
1. GO TO BED GRATEFUL. Before you go to sleep, list up to five things that happened in the last 24 hours for which you’re genuinely grateful. Think big (I’m grateful for seeing a good friend) and small (my favorite galley meal today – love that meatloaf!). It can be done mentally or you can write it down.

2. FOR A LIMITED TIME, GIVE UP SOMETHING YOU TAKE FOR GRANTED. Even if underway or forward deployed, there’s at least a small luxury you enjoy every day. Let it go for a week and notice what happens. Do you appreciate it even more? Do you feel stronger for having gone without it at will?

3. EXPRESS GRATITUDE TO OTHERS OFTEN. Give three sincere compliments a day. We feel at our best when we help others to do the same. Express your appreciation for the actions of others. Be clear and specific. After a week, see what happens – are you more focused on people’s positive qualities? Do those around you seem more motivated? Are you more enthused?

4. THINK FLEXIBLY ABOUT ADVERSITY. Bring a challenging experience from your past to mind, or a challenge you’re experiencing now, and write a list of the ways in which this thought-provoking experience has helped you to grow. This is not the same as simply “looking on the bright side” or denying that a bad event was, in fact, bad. It is about looking at stimulating experiences in their totality, flexibly from all sides, and focusing energy on the lessons learned, and the muscles strengthened. Remaining mentally tough, resilient and ready takes effort, the same way we need three healthy meals a day, and a commitment to regular exercise, psychological strength takes continuous action and reinforcement. These activities are a place to start, for you and everyone you care about.

WHAT ARE YOU GRATEFUL FOR AT NAS WHIDBEY ISLAND?

When we asked Brytanny Scudder, military spouse and 2021 Reserve Ombudsman of the Year, this question, she named the Triad at VP69. “Their incredible flexibility made it easy for me and my husband to take care of our children,” says the mother of two, who has been stationed at NAS Whidbey Island with her husband, AT1 Michael Scudder, for the last three-and-a-half years. Scudder also feels gratitude towards the Fleet and Family Support Center and the countless ombudsmen who she credits with bridging a wealth of information to families.

When it’s time for a little R&R, Scudder turns to FFR. “My kids just love the curbside pick-up kits at the Convergence Zone,” she says. Her family also loves taking part in all of the runs hosted by the Whidbey Fitness Center. “That’s our thing,” she shares with a laugh, “we actually had to buy a medal holder because we participate in a lot of 5K’s!”
