1. Purpose. To promulgate United States Navy policy and assign responsibilities for the implementation of the Personal Financial Management (PFM) education, training, and counseling program. Recent Navy community needs assessment data clearly identifies PFM as a top concern for Navy families. Operational commanders have identified financial decision making and resultant financial problems as having a serious negative impact on the stability of servicemembers and families, as well as a debilitating effect on operational readiness, morale, and retention. This policy implements specific requirements that establish a systemic approach to address PFM issues for Sailors, families, and the Navy. This instruction is a complete revision and should be reviewed in its entirety.

7 May 07

2. Cancellation. OPNAVINST 1740.5A.

3. Applicability and Scope. Provisions of this instruction apply to all Navy active duty and reserve personnel, regular and reserve commands, permanent detachments, and departments. Navy civilian employees serving at duty stations outside the continental United States (OCONUS) are also included under some provisions of this instruction. Active duty and reserve personnel of other Department of Defense (DOD) components and United States Coast Guard are included when assigned to Navy commands.

4. Definitions. Terms used in this instruction are defined in enclosure (1).

5. Background

a. Reference (a) establishes PFM policy for all DOD components. The Navy hereby provides amplification of that policy.

b. Management of personal finances presents an increasing challenge to Sailors and their families. For some, the lack of basic consumer skills and training in how to prudently manage finances sets the stage for financial difficulty. Other contributing factors that magnify the impact on the military lifestyle are:

(1) High cost of living in some areas in the United States and overseas.

(2) Prevalence of easy credit and predatory lenders.

(3) High-pressure sales tactics.

7 May 07

(4) Clever and deceptive advertising techniques that include internet ads.

(5) Undisciplined buying and the tendency to live beyond one's means.

(6) Consumer rip-off schemes.

c. In many cases, resultant financial problems have a serious negative impact on Sailors and their families, as well as a debilitating effect on operational readiness, morale, and retention.

6. Mission

a. The Navy PFM program exists to provide education, counseling, information and referral to Navy personnel and commands in order to increase personal, family, and operational readiness. Locally, the PFM program assists commands in achieving a higher state of mission readiness, thereby improving servicemember performance and retention through personal financial readiness.

b. Although the PFM program has a counseling mission, its primary focus is on prevention of financial difficulties and mismanagement through education of Sailors and their legal dependents (hereafter referred to as family members).

7. Policy

a. References (a) through (l) mandate specific programs, actions, or requirements that are relevant to the PFM program.

b. PFM is a key Quality of Life (QOL), readiness and retention program. As detailed in references (a) and (l), servicemembers and the Navy have a joint responsibility to address personal financial obligations. Members have an obligation to meet the financial needs of their families and discharge their just financial debts in a timely fashion. Commanding Officers (COs) have a responsibility to encourage financial responsibility and sound financial planning. The Navy promotes sound financial practices, personal integrity, and responsibility among its members.

7 May 07

c. All Sailors shall become familiar with PFM program policies and objectives, use prudent PFM practices in pursuit of personal excellence and support their shipmates by sharing their PFM knowledge.

d. The PFM program consists of three major elements:

- (1) Financial education and training
- (2) Financial information and referral
- (3) Financial counseling

e. Active and Reserve commands, permanent detachments, and departments having at least 25 personnel assigned shall have a trained Command Financial Specialist (CFS) to coordinate the program and to assist the CO/Officer-In-Charge (OIC) in providing financial training, information, and counseling to command members. Commands shall maintain a ratio of one CFS to every 75 members assigned, including those assigned temporary duty (TEM DU), temporary duty under instruction (TEM DUINS), and members from other services. Personnel assigned as a CFS must meet the criteria establishment in enclosure (2). Commands, permanent detachments and departments having fewer than 25 personnel are encouraged to have a trained CFS. Alternatively, those with fewer than 25 may arrange for another command to provide CFS services by written agreement. All commands and permanent detachments shall conduct annual PFM training per reference (c) and provide counseling via a trained and qualified CFS.

f. At the individual command level, the three elements of the program are under the control of a qualified CFS. General duties and responsibilities of the CFS are detailed in enclosure (2).

g. As described in references (a), (b), (f), and (i), Fleet and Family Support Centers (FFSC) provide support to all elements of the PFM program. Each FFSC shall provide at least one trained and qualified staff member to function as a financial educator and counselor (FEC) as detailed in enclosure (3).

h. Core PFM training subjects, listed in enclosure (4), will be delivered in a continuum of learning beginning with recruit training and continuing throughout a Sailor's career and transition to civilian life, as detailed in enclosure (5). Financial education, training, and counseling will be provided as a collaborative effort between the CFS and FFSC PFM personnel. If these two resources are not available, commands should refer to enclosure (6) and or consult the FFSC to obtain names of other local authorized resources.

i. Providing current PFM information to military personnel is an integral part of the program. Relevant PFM information will be issued or published regularly in Navy internal media. The financial world and consumer markets are very dynamic; therefore, it is incumbent upon commands, the CFS, and PFM staff to raise awareness of PFM concerns and assistance available to Sailors and their families.

j. A qualified CFS or certified financial educator will counsel Navy personnel, family members, and other DoD personnel experiencing financial difficulties or seeking information on PFM concerns. If the CFS or FFSC cannot provide assistance, referrals shall be made to other authorized agencies (e.g., Navy Marine Corps Relief Society (NMCRS); Navy Legal Service Office; National Foundation of Credit Counseling affiliated, non-profit Consumer Credit Counseling Services (CCCS); Navy Mutual Aid; or other resources detailed in enclosure (6)). Navy Mutual Aid Association will be a primary referral and educational resource where survivor benefit plans are concerned.

k. FFSCs support all elements of the PFM program by conducting a CFS training course and providing qualified FECs to function in all other areas of the PFM program as needed. Enclosure (3) provides amplification on the qualifications of the FEC.

8. Records Management. Records created as a result of this instruction, regardless of media and format, shall be managed per Secretary of the Navy (SECNAV) Manual 5210.1 of November 2007.

9. Action and General Responsibilities

a. Specific responsibilities and duties in support of the PFM program are delineated in enclosures (2), (3), and (7). It is of critical importance to the readiness of Sailors and the Navy that all Navy leaders, at all levels, engage on this issue and serve as mentors to those in their charge. The chief petty officer's mess should exercise proactive leadership and mentorship in PFM.

b. Per references (a) and (1), Service members are responsible for prudently maintaining their day-to-day personal financial matters and adequately preparing for the management of personal responsibilities prior to departing on an extended absence.

10. Command Inspection Program. The immediate superior in command (ISIC) shall inspect the command's PFM program. The following minimum requirements shall be reviewed:

a. CFS identified in writing using enclosure (8).

b. CFS has received appropriate training per enclosure (2).

c. Appropriate ratio of CFS to crew per paragraph 7e of this instruction.

d. Each command has appointed one CFS assigned as a command special assistant for personal finances (CSAPF) using enclosure (9). COs and command master chiefs shall meet with the CSAPF at least quarterly to discuss PFM issues at their command. The CSAPF and their contact information shall appear on the masthead of the command plan of the week/plan of the day (POW/POD).

e. CFS is included in command indoctrination program(s), and pre- and post-deployment programs, as applicable.

f. Per references (f) and (g), PFM counseling records are maintained to ensure confidentiality and compliance with applicable Privacy Act regulations.

g. CFS is identified in appropriate locations (POD, POW, etc.).

h. Consultation with the CFS appears on the command check-in/check-out sheets.

11. Reports and Form

a. Reports contained in this instruction are exempt from reports control per SECNAV Manual 5214.1 of December 2005

b. NAVPERS 1070/613 (Rev. 07-06) Administrative Remarks is available via Naval Forms Online at <https://navalforms.daps.dla.mil/web/public/forms>.
