

A vibrant Halloween-themed illustration featuring a large, glowing jack-o'-lantern in the center. A witch with a purple hat and a devil with red horns and a pitchfork are perched on top of the pumpkin. To the left, a mummy is wrapped in white bandages with glowing eyes. To the right, a vampire with blue skin and fangs is shown. A ghost floats in the upper right, and a black cat is on the left. The background is dark purple with orange and yellow bunting flags at the top and silhouettes of trees and bats.
